The Cave Creek Cutting Horse Association was founded by Arizona cutting horse enthusiasts to develop interest in cutting on the local level as well as promote the enjoyment and thrill of riding these superb athletic equines. The Association sponsors learning clinics and workshops to help educate those new to the sport. We have approximately 200 members and we hold Affiliate status from the National Cutting Horse Association in Fort Worth, Texas.

Additionally, the Association supports local charities by dedicating a show each year to collect items benefiting chosen groups. Funds have also been raised for community members in times of crisis. The Cave Creek Cutting Horse Association has donated a judge's stand and fence panels to the Arizona Horse Lovers Park.

The Cave Creek Cutting Horse Association hosts approximately 9 competitions per year with participants earning points in their respective classes. We host a Year End Awards presentation and bestow prizes on the top finishers in each class. Awards range from belt buckles, horse tack and equipment to hand made leather items and western jewelry.
